The Situation

- Ensuring accurate payroll and effective scheduling, while dealing with the added intricacies of time and labor management, is a challenge.
- Employees expect - and need - payroll to be correct, and for tasks like clocking in and out to be simple.
- Time inaccuracies can harm the bottom line and tie up resources.
- Distributed workforces have created unique challenges to accurately manage time, attendance and scheduling.
- Outdated time tracking hardware and software create further complications.

The Solution

isolated Time and Labor Management is a feature-rich solution that enhances time, attendance and scheduling procedures for your entire workforce—even across employees who are remote or on the go.

- ✓ Reduce inefficiency and errors
- ✓ Enable flexible time tracking
- ✓ Ensure end-to-end time visibility
- ✓ Simplify and improve scheduling

A man in a maroon shirt is pointing at a whiteboard covered in sticky notes. He is surrounded by a group of colleagues, including a woman in a light pink shirt with her arms crossed, who is looking at him attentively. The scene is set in a bright, modern office with large windows in the background.
